YOUR ESSENTIAL GUIDE TO WINE & DINE

The Westcountry has always been a place where food isn't just eaten it's celebrated. From the rugged coastline of the English Riviera to the rolling fields and farmsteads that define our region, this corner of the country offers some of the richest, freshest, and most diverse flavours anywhere in the UK.

That's why The Westcountry Food Guide exists: to champion the very best of it.

Every day, our team shines a spotlight on outstanding restaurants, bistros, pubs, cafés, and hidden gems across the region. Whether you crave perfectly aged steaks, world class seafood, vibrant vegetarian dishes, or refined fine dining, we bring you the most exciting culinary experiences the Westcountry has to offer all in one place.

We're proud to be the only food magazine in the region offering a truly comprehensive package: In depth food reviews, exclusive interviews with inspirational chefs, seasonal recipes and healthy eating features.

Daily updates across Facebook and our official website. Special offers, competitions, and insider news seven days a week.

Our mission is simple: whatever your taste, whatever your budget, we make sure there is something here for everyone to enjoy.

Inside our guide, you'll discover everything from award winning fine dining restaurants to traditional country pubs, from authentic world cuisine to the freshest fish and chips on the coast. Thai, Chinese, Indian, seafood, carveries, contemporary British, global fusion, the Westcountry's food scene is more vibrant than ever, and we're here to help you explore it.

With such an incredible range of places to eat out and drink, dining out in the Westcountry is an experience to savour and we're thrilled to guide you through it.

Thank you for joining us. Follow and subscribe to stay up to date with the latest food news, offers, and inspiration from different foods from around the world, right on our doorstep. I hope you enjoy everything we've curated for you, and that it enhances every moment of your dining adventures across this remarkable region.

INDEPENDENT AND PROUD

Redefining the South Devon Hospitality Landscape: The Rise of East Street Pub Co. From its humble roots in the historic market town of Newton Abbot, East Street Pub Co has quietly but dynamically transformed how South Devon eats, drinks, and socializes. What began as a single, passionate venture at the Union Inn on Newton Abbot's East Street has flourished into a family run hospitality powerhouse.

Managing a diverse portfolio of over nine distinctive venues spanning across Torquay, Paignton, Teignmouth, and Kingsteignton, the Narvidge family has spent over a decade perfecting the art of the modern British pub group. Their guiding philosophy is simple yet highly effective: design spaces that honour the traditional, warm spirit of local pubs while infusing them with contemporary energy, premium styling, and interactive entertainment.

The independent group's dedication to creating unique experiences was recently spotlighted on the national stage when their marquee harbourside venue, The Yacht in Torquay, was proudly voted 'Best Bar' in Devon at the prestigious Muddy Stilettos Awards.

The Yacht perfectly showcases East Street Pub Co's knack for breathing new life into local architectural gems. The venue effortlessly contrasts low key, comfortable social lounges with premium, event driven spaces even introducing artisan distilling and tasting sessions to the bay. This commitment to design and concept innovation flows naturally across all their operations, bridging the gap between generations of pub goers.

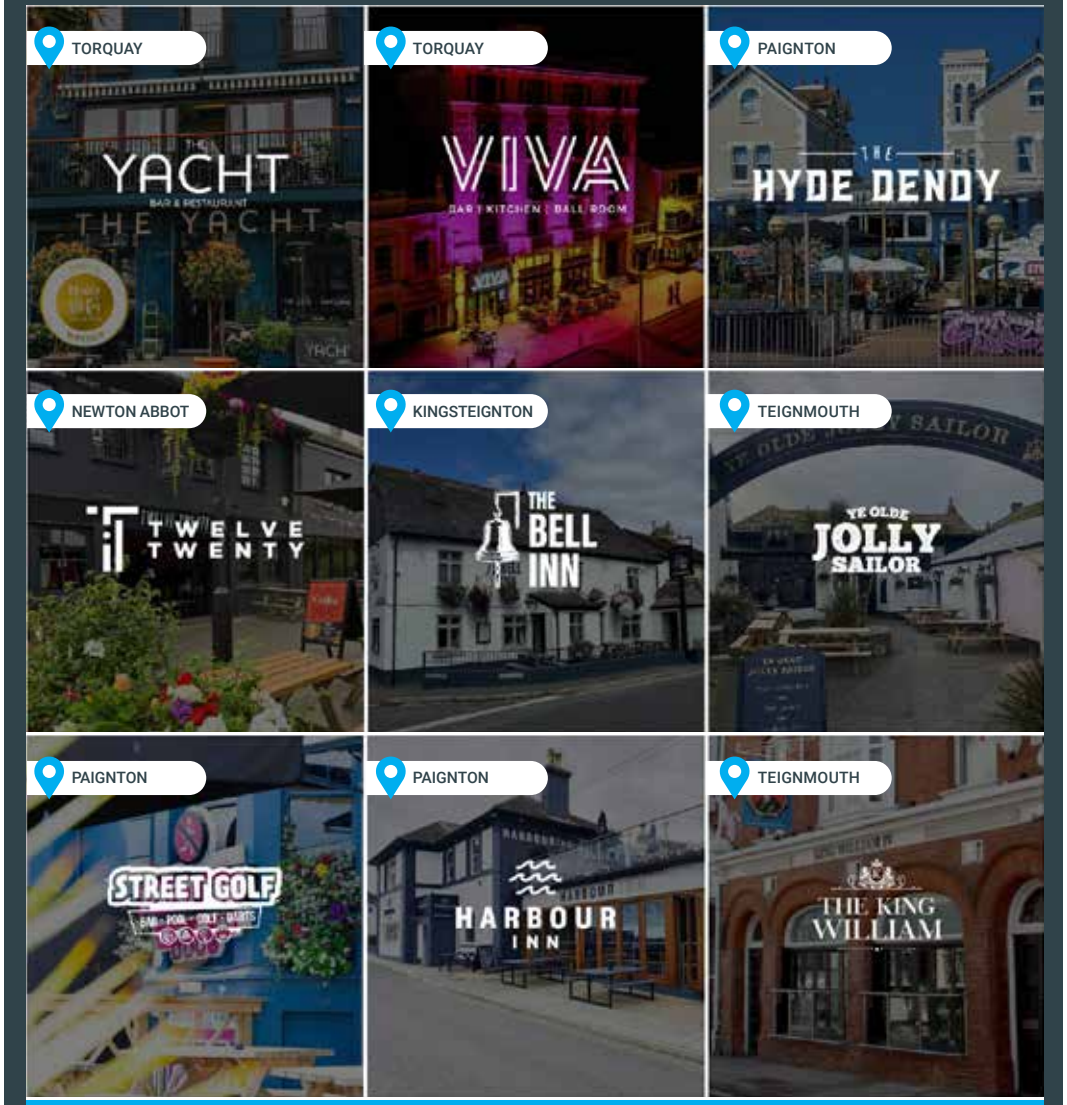

A major secret to the group's immense success is its refusal to rely on a generic corporate formula. Instead, East Street Pub Co ensures each venue retains its own vibrant, independent character shaped by its immediate community.

For those searching for a quintessential Devon village pub, The Bell Inn in Kingsteignton welcomes guests with low wooden beams, a roaring log burner, local cask ales, and a spacious family beer garden. Meanwhile, coastal visitors seeking modern beachfront energy flock to The Hyde Dendy on Paignton seafront. Below this popular venue, the group introduced a groundbreaking, immersive street golf experience, perfectly illustrating how they continuously push boundaries by mixing premium hospitality with interactive activities.

Whether you are seeking a lively night out filled with cocktails by the sea at VIVA Torquay, a relaxed family Sunday roast at The Harbour Inn in Paignton, or a premium craft beer at Twelve Twenty a sleek Newton Abbot bar named in honour of the town's historic clocktower the underlying standard remains unmatched. Every single plate is crafted with care using locally sourced Devon produce, poured alongside carefully curated fine wines, signature cocktails, and regional ales.

By consistently prioritizing exceptional hospitality, quality products, and unforgettable settings, East Street Pub Co hasn't just grown its footprint; it has elevated South Devon's entire pub culture.

A FEAST ACROSS FOUR TOWNS

THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO EATING OUT IN NEWTON ABBOT, TEIGNMOUTH, DAWLISH AND TOTNES

The heart of South Devon beats with flavour. From the bustling market town of Newton Abbot to the bohemian streets of Totnes, and from the sun kissed shores of Teignmouth to the classic seaside charm of Dawlish, this stretch of the Westcountry offers one of the most diverse and rewarding dining landscapes in the region. Here, food isn't just served it's crafted, celebrated, and woven into the character of each town.

Whether you're craving fine dining, global cuisine, seafood straight from the coast, or cosy pub classics, this is your definitive guide to eating out across four of Devon's most vibrant destinations.

NEWTON ABBOT

A Market Town with a Modern Appetite

Newton Abbot has long been known for its markets, and that heritage of fresh produce still shapes its food scene today. The town has evolved into a lively hub of restaurants, cafés, and pubs that champion local ingredients and global flavours in equal measure.

Traditional British & Gastropub Classics
Newton Abbot's pubs are some of the best in the region, serving hearty dishes built around Westcountry staples: Devon beef, local vegetables, and homemade desserts. Expect slow cooked meats, rich gravies, and Sunday roasts that draw crowd's week after week.

Gastropubs in the surrounding villages elevate these classics with modern twists think cider braised pork belly, pan fried hake with herb butter, and seasonal vegetarian plates that rival any city restaurant.

Global Cuisine in the Heart of Town
The town's international offering is wonderfully varied. Indian restaurants serve aromatic curries and tandoori grills, while Thai and Chinese eateries offer fragrant stir fries, noodles, and bold spices. Italian trattorias bring handmade pasta and wood fired pizzas to the table, and there are even American style diners for those craving burgers, ribs, and loaded fries.

Cafés, Bakeries & Brunch Spots
Newton Abbot's café culture is thriving. Independent bakeries produce artisan breads and pastries, while brunch spots serve everything from eggs Benedict to vegan smoothie bowls. Many cafés source ingredients from local farms, making even a simple sandwich feel special.

TEIGNMOUTH

Seafood, Seafront Dining, & Coastal Charm

Teignmouth is a town shaped by the sea and its food scene reflects that beautifully. With fishing boats landing fresh catch daily, this is one of the best places in Devon for seafood lovers.

Seafood Straight from the Source
Teignmouth's seafood restaurants are exceptional. Expect: Brixham crab Mussels in white wine Pan fried sea bass Grilled mackerel Scallops with garlic butter Many restaurants overlook the water, making the experience as memorable as the food itself.

Beachfront Cafés & Family Favourites
Along the promenade, you'll find relaxed cafés serving breakfasts, sandwiches, ice creams, and seaside classics. These spots are perfect for families, offering casual dining with unbeatable views.

International Dining with a Coastal Twist
Teignmouth's global food offering includes: Italian restaurants with fresh pasta and seafood risotto: Indian eateries serving rich curries and tandoori grills: Thai restaurants with fragrant, spicy dishes, Contemporary British bistros with seasonal menus.

It's a town where you can enjoy a curry one night and a seafood feast the next.

Pubs & Live Music Venues
Teignmouth's pubs are lively, welcoming, and often host live music. Many serve excellent food from gourmet burgers to Devon steaks and homemade pies making them ideal for relaxed evenings out.

DAWLISH

Classic Seaside Dining with Heart

Dawlish is the quintessential British seaside town colourful, friendly, and full of charm. Its food scene blends traditional favourites with modern surprises.

Fish & Chips at Their Finest
Dawlish is home to some of the best fish and chips in the region. Crisp batter, chunky chips, and fish so fresh it barely needs seasoning it's a must try for any visitor. Enjoy it on the seafront for the full experience.

Cosy Cafés & Tearooms
Dawlish's cafés and tearooms are warm, welcoming, and perfect for a relaxed bite. Expect homemade cakes, cream teas, sandwiches, and hearty breakfasts. Many are family run, adding to the town's friendly atmosphere.

Pubs, Carveries & Comfort Food
Traditional pubs serve generous portions of British classics roasts, pies, steaks, and seasonal specials. Carveries are particularly popular, offering comforting meals ideal for families and groups.

World Cuisine in a Seaside Setting
Dawlish also offers a selection of Indian, Chinese, and Italian restaurants, giving visitors plenty of choice. Whether you're craving a spicy curry or a bowl of pasta, you'll find something to satisfy.

TOTNES

Bohemian, Ethical, and Bursting with Flavour

Totnes is a haven for vegetarian and vegan food lovers. Plant based cafés and restaurants serve vibrant salads, colourful bowls, homemade soups, and inventive mains that showcase seasonal produce. Expect dishes built around roasted vegetables, pulses, grains, and bold global flavours.

Many eateries here prioritise organic ingredients, sustainable sourcing, and zero waste principles making Totnes one of the most forward thinking food towns in the region.

World Cuisine with a Creative Twist
Totnes embraces global flavours with enthusiasm.

You'll find Middle Eastern mezze, Authentic Indian thalis, Japanese inspired dishes, Mediterranean small plates and Mexican street food favourites.

These restaurants often blend traditional recipes with modern creativity, resulting in menus that feel fresh, colourful, and full of personality.

Artisan Bakeries & Indie Coffee Houses
Totnes is home to some of the best bakeries in South Devon. Expect sourdough loaves, pastries, cakes, and gluten free treats that draw queues out the door. Coffee shops here are cosy, characterful, and often filled with local art perfect for slow mornings or creative afternoons.

Riverside Dining & Ambience
As the sun sets, Totnes transforms into a warm, atmospheric dining destination. Riverside restaurants offer candlelit dinners with seasonal menus, while wine bars serve small plates, charcuterie, and local cheeses. It's a town that invites you to linger.

FOUR TOWNS, ENDLESS FLAVOUR ...

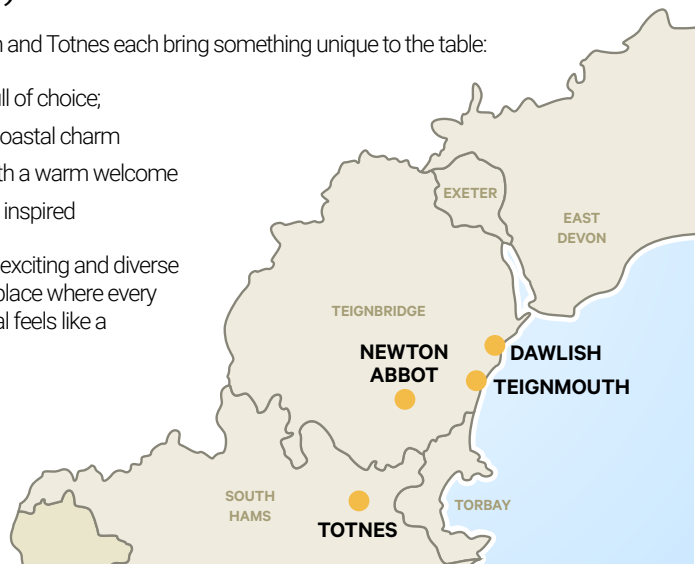

Newton Abbot, Teignmouth, Dawlish and Totnes each bring something unique to the table:

Newton Abbot: hearty, varied, and full of choice;
Teignmouth: seafood heaven with coastal charm
Dawlish: classic seaside comfort with a warm welcome
Totnes: creative, ethical, and globally inspired

Together, they form one of the most exciting and diverse dining regions in the Westcountry a place where every appetite is catered for and every meal feels like a celebration of local flavour.

Enjoy!

A TASTE OF THE BAY

THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO EATING OUT IN PAIGNTON & TORQUAY

There are few places in Britain where dining out feels as effortlessly joyful as it does along the curve of Torbay. Paugnton and Torquay the beating heart of the English Riviera, has long been known for their palm lined promenades, golden beaches, and holiday buzz. But in recent years, something remarkable has happened: the food scene has flourished into one of the most exciting, diverse, and quality driven culinary destinations in the Westcountry.

From harbourside seafood to global street food, from elegant fine dining to family friendly favourites, the Bay now offers a dining landscape as vibrant as its coastline. This is your definitive guide to the flavours, chefs, and experiences that make Paignton and Torquay a must visit for food lovers.

PAIGNTON

Laid Back, Family Friendly, and Full of Flavour

Paignton has a different energy relaxed, colourful, and welcoming. It's the perfect place for families, casual dining, and hearty, comforting food. But don't let the easy-going atmosphere fool you: Paignton's food scene is packed with quality.

Classic British Seaside Eats
Paignton is home to some of the best fish and chips in the Westcountry. Crisp batter, fluffy chips, and fish so fresh it practically melts it's a simple pleasure done exceptionally well.

Along the seafront and harbour, you'll also find Traditional carveries, Ice cream parlours, Beachfront cafés, Burger bars and Family friendly pubs.

It's the kind of place where you can grab a cone of chips and wander the pier, or sit down for a Sunday roast with all the trimmings.

World Cuisine with a Local Touch
Paignton's global food offering is wonderfully varied. Expect: Indian restaurants serving rich curries and tandoori grills: Chinese and Thai eateries with bold, aromatic dishes: Italian restaurants perfect for pizza and pasta nights: American style diners offering ribs, wings, and towering burgers.

Many of these restaurants are long standing family businesses, the kind that build loyal followings and serve recipes passed down through generations.

Pubs, Gastropubs & Local Favourites
Paignton's pubs are some of the friendliest in Devon, and many now serve food that rivals dedicated restaurants. Think: Devon steak pies: Beer battered fish: Homemade desserts.

Gastropubs in the surrounding villages offer elevated menus featuring seasonal produce, making them ideal for a cosy evening out.

TORQUAY

Where Coastal Glamour Meets Culinary Ambition

Torquay has always had a flair for the dramatic sweeping sea views, grand Victorian villas, and a harbour that glitters at sunset. Today, its restaurants match that sense of occasion.

Seafood at Its Finest
With Brixham's world class fish market just across the water, Torquay's seafood restaurants are among the freshest in the country. Many chefs collect their fish straight from the morning auction, meaning your plate might hold a turbot or scallop that was still in the sea the night before.

Expect menus built around: Hand dived scallops: Line caught sea bass: Brixham crab and lobster: Monkfish, hake, and seasonal shellfish. Whether you're dining in a chic waterfront restaurant or a tucked away bistro, the quality is unmistakable.

Fine Dining with a Riviera Twist
Torquay's fine dining scene has grown into something genuinely special. Chefs here are embracing local produce, Devon beef, Exmoor lamb, artisan cheeses, foraged herbs and pairing it with modern techniques and bold flavours.

Tasting menus often read like love letters to the region: Wild garlic velouté in spring: Torbay sole with brown butter and capers: Summer berry desserts using fruit from local farm. Autumn dishes built around mushrooms, game, and orchard apples. These restaurants offer more than a meal they offer a sense of place.

Global Flavours by the Sea
Torquay's international dining scene is thriving, with restaurants specialising in Authentic Thai curries, Japanese sushi and teppanyaki, Italian trattoria classics and Indian regional dishes.

Mediterranean mezze and grilled meats. It's a town where you can enjoy a fragrant bowl of ramen one night and a wood fired pizza the next, all within walking distance of the harbour lights.

Cafés, Brunch Spots & Hidden Gems
Torquay's café culture is equally impressive. Independent bakeries, artisan coffee houses, and brunch spots serve everything from smashed avocado to homemade pastries and Devon cream teas. Many have sea views; all have charm.

Look out for Freshly baked sourdough, Local jams and preserves, Barista crafted coffees, Homemade cakes and brownies and Vegan and gluten free options.

THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS:
WHAT MAKES TORBAY'S FOOD SCENE SPECIAL

Torquay and Paignton complement each other beautifully. Torquay brings sophistication, innovation, and a cosmopolitan edge. Paignton brings warmth, comfort, and the joy of simple, well cooked food. Together, they create a dining destination that truly has something for everyone.

Fresh, Local, Seasonal
The Westcountry's produce is the backbone of the region's food identity. Expect: Vegetables from Devon farms: Meat from local butchers: Dairy from award winning creameries: Fresh herbs, berries, and orchard fruit. Fish and shellfish from Brixham, Chefs here don't just use local ingredients they celebrate them.

Something for Every Taste
Whether you're craving: Fine dining: Seafood: Vegan and vegetarian dishes: Street food: Pub classics: International cuisine. Family friendly meals: Romantic dinners: Beachfront bites: Torquay and Paignton deliver.

A Food Scene That Keeps Growing
New restaurants, cafés, and bars continue to open across the Bay, bringing fresh ideas and exciting flavours. From modern fusion concepts to traditional eateries with a twist, the area's culinary landscape is evolving and diners are reaping the rewards.

Why The English Riviera
The English Riviera should be on every food lover's map. Dining out here isn't just about eating it's about atmosphere, creativity, and the unmistakable feeling of being somewhere special. Whether you're enjoying a seafood feast overlooking the harbour, sharing tapas with friends, or tucking into a hearty pub meal after a day at the beach, Torbay offers experiences that linger long after the last bite.

This is a region where chefs are passionate, ingredients are exceptional, and every meal feels like a celebration of the Westcountry itself.

So let's explore, taste, and savour. Torquay Paignton and Brixham and the Westcountry are ready to welcome you and your appetite.

Enjoy!

PIER POINT

BAR & RESTAURANT • RESTAURANT & BAR •

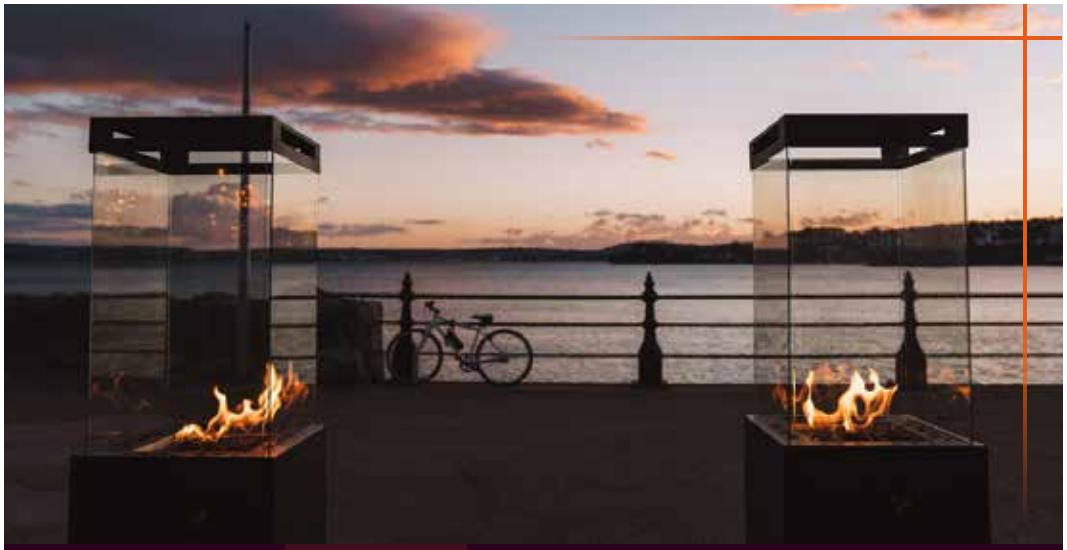

Coastal Elegance Meets Multi-Award-Winning Dining at Torquay's Seafront Oasis Nestled seamlessly on the water's edge adjacent to the bustling marina, Pier Point Restaurant & Bar has firmly established itself as the crown jewel of the English Riviera.

Step through the sleek, floor to ceiling glass facade and you are immediately enveloped in a sophisticated, vintage cocktail lounge aesthetic that perfectly complements the breathtaking, postcard-perfect views across Torbay. Following a spectacular £750,000 transformation orchestrated by owner Lorraine Arnold, this iconic destination beautifully balances relaxed coastal charm with refined, modern luxury.

What sets Pier Point apart from standard seaside establishments is an unyielding commitment to culinary excellence and local sourcing. As proud Seafood Coast Ambassadors, the kitchen team crafts an ever evolving menu celebrating the finest daily catches from nearby South Devon waters. It is this passion that has caught the attention of the nation's most prestigious culinary authorities.

Pier Point has accumulated a glittering array of accolades, including being named among the UK's Top 10 Best Fish & Chip Restaurants in the highly competitive Fry Magazine Fry Awards. Adding to this prestige, the restaurant was crowned National Fish and Chip Shop of the Year at the Fishermen's Mission Awards and boasts the coveted Good Food Award Gold Seal for consistent three year customer excellence.

The restaurant's innovative spirit is further exemplified by master frier Charlie James, who was named a national top-five finalist for the NFFF Dry wite Young Fish Frier of the Year. While the multi award winning fish and chips boasting perfectly light, crispy batter and incredibly fresh, flaky cod remain a legendary staple, the all day menu caters beautifully to every palate. Guests can indulge in a luxurious selection of small plates, artisan pizzas, plump local mussels, and decadent lobster. For those seeking classic British comfort with an upscale twist, the Taste of the West Gold winning Ultimate West Country Burger features a handmade 6oz gourmet steak patty nestled in a toasted brioche bun.

The venue is equally meticulous regarding inclusive dining, providing a wealth of expertly prepared gluten free, vegetarian, and vegan options. Pier Point is much more than a restaurant; it is a sensory journey that adapts flawlessly from dawn to dusk. Start your morning by watching the harbour wake up over a rich, expert barista coffee.

Transition into a sun drenched afternoon on the expansive outdoor terrace, sharing ocean platters alongside a glass of crisp Prosecco.

As dusk settles, watch the sky turn brilliant shades of pink and orange over the water while sipping a masterpiece from the venue's signature cocktail menu. Backed by warm, attentive staff who deliver Michelin-star-worthy presentation with local hospitality, Pier Point turns any ordinary meal into an unforgettable coastal occasion. Discover the pinnacle of Devonshire dining for yourself.

Book your table by calling 01803 299935 or explore the latest seasonal menus online at the official Pier Point website.

The Cott Inn

A traditional 14th century thatched Devon longhouse in the heart of Dartington, Totnes. We serve award-winning food crafted from the finest local produce. Renowned for our outstanding Sunday roasts, we're proud to be at the heart of the local community. Upstairs you'll find cosy rooms, and outside, one of only a few pub gardens in Totnes open for drinks and dining all year round.

Cott Lane, Dartington, Totnes, TQ9 6HE. Tel: 01803 863777.

The Monks Retreat

The Monks Retreat is a historic, dog-friendly countryside pub located in the village square of Broadhempston. The grade II listed inn features heavily beamed ceilings, exposed stonework, and a cozy log-burning stove. It serves a menu of classic pub favourites, local real ales, and fine wines, and also offers two recently refurbished bed-and-breakfast rooms.

Broadhempston, TQ9 6BN.
Tel: 01803 812203.

The Prince of Wales

After a full day of activities on Dartmoor replace your energy in our pub The Prince of Wales. Situated just in front of the bunkhouse we serve good, honest, value for money pub grub. Find all the traditional, well loved, pub dishes and refuel your tank for the next day's adventures. After a good night's sleep a full English breakfast is served in the pub for only £6.50 per person.

Tavistock Road, Princetown, PL20 6QF
Tel: 01822 890219.

Bay Horse Inn

Following a refurbishment in 2015 and with a beer garden that is carved into the cliff face, the Bay Horse is a very pleasant bar located on one of the main arteries into the historic town of Ashburton, Devon. As the pub has no catering kitchen, the offer is completely focused on the tasty drinks and customer service. Regular ales feature on the menu along with popular lagers and ciders. A steady menu of events entice guests who enjoy live sports, board games, quiz nights and live bands who feature regularly.

64 North Street, Newton Abbot TQ13 7QG. Tel: 01364 653912.

The Forest Inn

The Forest Inn specialise in home made food using seasonal, locally sourced produce wherever possible. There is an emphasis on local beers and ciders, you have the opportunity to quench your thirst after the efforts of the day with a drink at the bar or relaxing on the Chesterfield in the lounge area, complete with log fire for winter evenings.

Hexworthy, Dartmeet, PL20 6SD
Tel: 01364 631211.

Peter Tavy Inn

The Peter Tavy Inn is a charming 15th century pub in the pretty village of Peter Tavy on the western flanks of Dartmoor. Renowned for good food and well-kept real ales. Home-made dishes are prepared from fresh local produce. Good sized carpark and walkers, cyclists, dogs and children are welcome.

Tavistock, PL19 9NN
Tel: 01822 810348.

The Globe Inn

The Globe's life as a coach house started way back in the 1600s, and since then its role in the community hasn't much changed. Of course, the building is now much warmer and the plumbing much more reliable, but some things just don't change. Comforting home-cooked food comes out of the kitchen, and the two well-stocked bars all serve the finest local tipples.

9 High St, Chagford, Newton Abbot, Devon. Tel: 01647 433485.

Cromwell Arms

This award-winning pub which sits at the gateway to the Moors in Bovey Tracey is a comfortable and friendly spot for beer drinking. Rooms are available, and the food here is great, but, as a village pub, the atmosphere is second to none. Log burners keep the place toasty in the colder months, and the sunny lawn is popular in summer.

Fore St, Bovey Tracey, Devon
Tel: 01626 833473.

Plume of Feathers

The Plume is Princetown's oldest building, and it feels like it. But that's not to say that that's a bad thing. This traditional historic pub is perfectly placed for walkers, hikers and tourists in the area and is decked out in proper granite walls and wooden beams. The beer on tap is local and delicious, and the staff are very friendly.

The Square, Princetown
Tel: 01822 890240.

The Post Inn

The Post is another one of those traditional Dartmoor pubs from the 16th century. It's a formula that works well in these parts, and this pub is a warm welcome from the often hostile Dartmoor elements. There are tons of local ciders, beers and ales on tap, as well as a big menu which is sure to not leave a single soul hungry.

Exeter Rd, Whiddon Down, Okehampton, Devon. Tel: 01647 231242.

West Country Pub Food Guide

Bearslake Inn

The Bearslake is what we call a real pub, and by that we mean that locals don't even have to ask the bar staff for their next drink. The restaurant here is of exceptionally high quality, and a good selection of beers are available. Bearslake is believed to have once been a working farm that dates all the way back to the 13th century, so there's a hell of a lot of history in these walls!

Lake Sourton, Okehampton
Tel: 01837 861334.

The Rugglestone

The Rugglestone is a traditional Dartmoor pub, complete with wooden beams, an oversized hearth with a roaring fire which burns year-round and a long history of coachmen and their antics. The food here is hearty and delicious – just what the doctor ordered after a long day in the great outdoors – and the beer garden is a pretty wisteria-clad backdrop, perfect for afternoon beers.

Widecombe in the Moor, Newton Abbot, Devon. Tel: 01364 621327.

The New Inn

The New Inn is just about everything you could wish for from a country pub. Full of character, great beers, better food and a welcome atmosphere. The kitchen is run by Master Chef's Malcolm Whybrow, his wife Karen and Michelin-trained Matthew Buscombe. As such, all aspects of this menu are beyond excellent, especially the puddings.

Green Hill, Sampford Courtenay, Okehampton, Devon. Tel: 01837 82247.

Dartmoor Halfway Inn

The Dartmoor Halfway Inn food is locally sourced where possible and is freshly cooked to order. The specials board changes daily and the menus with the seasons. Real ales and fine wines complement the menu, not to mention a good selection of spirits with over six different gins, a great selection of malts & vodkas to try.

Bickington, Newton Abbot, TQ12 6JW
Tel: 01626 824011.
